

To Men Who Appreciate Good Clothes.

Think of the finest made clothing for men in America and you will call before your mind's eye just such exquisite Made-to-Measure tailoring as we offer you today. Our selection of the latest Spring and Summer fashions and ALL-WOOL fabrics have never been better.

Included are:

Irish Homespun, Scotch Bannockburns, Cheviots and Worsteds, Glen Urquhart Plaids, Tartan Weaves and Diamond Squares. Also a wide range of special Trouserings and conservative Blues and Blacks.

The excellency of our clothing lies not only in the fabric, not merely in the perfection of cut, but also in those details so often hidden—so frequently untold—lining and interlining, trimming and needlework. A higher grade sample line of Men's Made-to-Measure tailoring can nowhere be viewed to a greater advantage than here. Our prices are fair to both you and us.

W. J. PRESLEY,
Gordonville, Tennessee.

Social and Personal Notes

Miss Lucy West is visiting friends and relatives at Riddleton.

Howard Jordan and John Herod of Dixon Springs were in Carthage Friday.

L. T. Russell, merchant of Pleasant Shade, was in Carthage Wednesday on business.

Mrs. E. M. Johnson of Hickman was the weekend guest of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Davis.

Leslie West of Lebanon R. 10 spent Tuesday as the guest of John Taylor.

Dr. Donoho was in Nashville first of the week as a delegate from Smith county to the state republican convention.

I. D. Beasley of Riddleton was in Carthage Tuesday. Mr. Beasley's name has been mentioned as a probable candidate for representative.

Miss Ruth Kemp, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kemp of DeFeated, is spending a week with the family of L. N. Dillehay.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Robinson of DeFeated were in Carthage Wednesday returning from a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Robinson, of Enoch.

Mr. and Mrs. John Richards, accompanied by Dr. Donoho, went to Nashville Tuesday where Mrs. Richards underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Neile Alexander, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Alexander of Dixon Springs, returned from Nashville Saturday after recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Miss Alexander re-entered Carthage high school Monday morning.

Mrs. T. J. McClarde, who has been in charge of the Hotel Walton for several years, left for Nashville last Friday afternoon to take charge of the hotel which she has leased at 300 Eighth avenue South.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Jones, who have been in charge of the Huddleston House at Hickman during the past several months, returned to Carthage last week and are now in charge of the Hotel Walton.

Mrs. Florence Ewell Atkins, national lecturer for the W. C. T. U., delivered two strong and interesting addresses against the liquor traffic at the Baptist church last Sunday morning and night.

Prof. L. B. Mathews and Miss Florence Smith, who have been in charge of the school at Riddleton, which closed last Friday, have returned to their homes in Carthage.

Mr. and Mrs. James Russell, who have been residing in Lebanon for some time, where Mr. Russell has been engaged in the livery business, have returned to Carthage to reside.

Read the clothing advertisement of W. J. Presley of Gordonville in this week's issue of the Courier. In addition to representing one of the country's best tailoring concerns, Mr. Presley is also agent for the Ladies' Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post and Country Gentleman.

Mr. R. C. Richardson of Gordonville, Mrs. R. L. Litchford of Brush Creek and Mrs. D. N. Litchford of Lebanon were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hiatt of Pleasant Shade have moved into the new residence erected on Main street by Williams Bros. Mr. Hiatt will be in charge of the automobile garage which has recently been established in Carthage by the Beasley Auto Co.

Mrs. E. E. Turner has returned from a week's visit with relatives at Willette. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Lena Jones, who will be here for an indefinite period.

An Enjoyable Affair.

On Sunday, April 30th, a crowd of people from Hickman made a flying trip to Seven Springs in DeKalb county, via New Middleton, Brush Creek, Alexandria, Liberty and Smithville. The party was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Ashley, and Mr. and Mrs. Will Betty, Jack Baird, Misses Ollie Rogers and Ruby Dow of Gordonville.

On returning the party stopped at Alexandria and enjoyed a most delightful lunch. From there they proceeded on to Hickman, enjoying themselves to the fullest extent.

DETECTIVES WANTED.

We will consider applications for membership in this Agency, from certain localities in Tennessee. We look after Criminals, collect names and addresses of Farmers, etc. Collect Debts and furnish Commercial reports to business concerns. Salary and fees. For full particulars write, VA & TENN. DETECTIVE AGENCY, Inc. Mahoney Building, 544t. Bristol, Tenn.-Va.

THE HIDDEN STING OF THE VENOMOUS THING

(Night Letter to the Courier.) "I heard she did, but don't tell it; at least, don't you say that I told you." "That's what they say," the other repeated, "but don't quote me or I will scold you." "That's what they say—I guess its true," so it went, and with that sneaking secrecy clause each foul tongue just a little more added 'til it spread and spread, and it grew, because the first woman hearing it was a gossip, and the next an unprincipled hag; the next was a smart "busy-body" with a long tongue ready always to wag. "They say she does," and thus is the poison dropped from slanderous tongues like a fire, kept going by a fool and a gossip, a rogue and a plain common liar. The poison kept spreading like a fester, it moves with the magic of art and consumes with the heat of oil fire until it burns up the hopes of a heart.

These unprincipled hags and the long-tongued stags—and others too contemptible to mention when they leave this earth—disgraced by their birth—will have the devil's warmest attention. Were I boss of the domain of hades, I'd keep an eye skinned for this lot; I'd cut out the shade and iced lemonade and warm 'em up good in the pitiless bot.

FESTUS.

Spring Millinery.

We wish to announce that our Spring Millinery for the present season has been received and is now ready for your inspection.

Miss Ona Vantrease, who has supplied the wants of the ladies in Millinery in this section for the past several seasons, is again in charge, and will take great pleasure in showing you the season's latest and most stylish designs. Call and see them.

C. W. CHILCUT,
ELMWOOD, TENNESSEE.

We also have a pretty line of Dress Goods and Slippers. Don't fail to call on us for your wants and New Spring Merchandise.

WOOL WANTED!

I Will Pay the Highest Market Prices For Wool. L. BOOKER, Elmwood, Tenn.

Potter the Tailor,

Not only makes suits and clothing, but does high grade Pressing, Dry Cleaning, Renovating Rugs and Art Squares, Dyeing and Bleaching Straw Hats and Panama Straw Matting and Kid Gloves, and Fancy Umbrellas. Alterations neatly made.

Back of Walton Hotel.
Carthage, Tenn.
Home Phone No. 60.

HICKMAN

Mrs. Maggie Akey is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Thomas. Birdie and Lattie Thomas spent the weekend in Lebanon. Mrs. Fannie Patterson of Gallatin is visiting relatives here. Mrs. R. L. Ashley was in Watertown Tuesday having dental work done. Mrs. E. M. Johnson spent the weekend in Carthage as the guest of her sister, Mrs. Chas. Davis. Mrs. W. H. Betty has returned from Cookeville. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nixon spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nixon. Dr. T. J. Smith was here last week. Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Gwaltney and Mr. and Mrs. Temple Russell motored to Lebanon Sunday to see Mrs. Chas. Denney, who has been confined to her bed with pneumonia. Mrs. Denney was formerly Miss Oallie James of this place. Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Jones and daughter, Miss Olean, have returned to Carthage to take charge of the Hotel Walton. The hotel here is now in charge of T. S. Nixon. The property vacated by Mr. Nixon is now occupied by N. E. Jackson. The revival conducted at the school building by Rev. Phillips closed Sunday night. R. A. Ware is no better. His son and daughter, Dewitt and Kate, are expected to arrive here this week. Dr. Curtis has purchased a Monroe automobile.

Miss Jane Addams is probably correct in her statement that the Ford peace trip was successful in his object. The sale of Ford cars appears to be increasing right along.

Your Eyes Are Your Greatest Blessing

Eye-strain will cause many nervous troubles, headaches, etc., which can however, be quickly relieved with properly fitted glasses. If you need attention, do not delay. Come and see me at once. Consultation Free.

Broken Lenses Duplicated.

DR. W. S. HOBBS, Registered Optometrist.
At Armistead's Jewelry Store, Carthage.

Pictures! Pictures!

If you want pictures made, come to the Chapman Old Stand on Mondays, Tuesdays and Saturdays of each week. I will be there on these dates and will guarantee satisfaction. Any size, any price, and the picture will suit you.

J. D. Boulton, Carthage, Tenn.

DIXON SPRINGS.

Richard Allen is in New Jersey. W. H. Cox of Decatur, Ala.,

and Little Miss Elizabeth Cox of Nashville were here last week. Mrs. H. B. Wright has returned from Nashville. H. B. Cox, Dr. J. L. Alexander, W. H. Denney and W. Y. Clay were in Nashville recently. Walter Burton has a new Dodge Brothers automobile. Fred Myers and Lum Mathews of Carthage were here Monday. Mr. Burton and Mr. Smith have returned to Granville. Mrs. A. C. Ballow is a little improved from recent serious illness.

GORDONVILLE.

Mrs. James Frank Curry of Brush Creek spent the weekend with Mrs. J. J. Hendrickson. Mrs. Frank Jeffreys entertained the Entre Nous Club Wednesday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. Dr. J. T. Ferguson has returned to his home at Chapel Hill. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Loden have returned from a short stay in Nashville. Gordonville won a game of baseball from Elmwood recently, the score being 8 to 4. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ashley of Hickman were recent guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vantrease. Mrs. Eva Condit is visiting friends in Nashville. Mrs. J. S. Campbell has returned after a short visit at Rome. Little Joe William Barbee of Nashville is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith. Mrs. Boston of South Carthage is here with her little son, who is being treated by Dr. Robbins.

Calhoun's Great Auction Sale of Fine Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Cut Glass, Clocks, Etc., Continues the Center of Attraction in Nashville.

You are lose if you do not attend this great bargain event before it is over.

Good Values in Merchandise

Notwithstanding the constant advance on all commodities, we are in shape to sell many articles at the old prices, and you can save money by buying at our store. We bought in large quantities before the advance and we want to give our customers this advantage. On such articles as Oil Stoves, Weber Wagons, Cook Stoves, Harness and Leather Goods, we can sell at the old price which means money to you. Seven Bars of Lenox Soap For 25c, on Mondays Only. We also carry a complete stock of everything in the way of fresh groceries, hardware, queensware, farming implements and notions. We handle the Gulf Refining Company's coal oil and gasoline and supply automobiles from street pump. We are agents for Dodge Bros. automobiles. We respectfully solicit your patronage and assure you of our prompt and appreciative attention to all orders. Free delivery to any point in the city. Both telephones.

McClellan Mercantile Company,
CARTHAGE, TENNESSEE